II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

A. On Friday, 10 October, the Intelligence Production Faculty met with the SIC Faculty for the purpose of coordinating the research work to be done in the Communism course with that to be done in the Intelligence Techniques course.

B. Fourteen of the fifteen students officially enrolled in Effective Writing Course No. 18 started the course on Thursday, 9 October. Because of a business trip, one student was forced to withdraw from the course before it began.

C. On Wednesday, 15 October, thirteen students completed Effective Speaking Course No. 7. Because of OTR requirements, Messrs. [] had to withdraw from the course. Mr. [] plans to complete the course in January when it is next offered.

D. Ten students have enrolled for Conference Techniques Course No. 9, which begins on Monday, 20 October.

E. On Monday, 13 October, Intelligence Research (Techniques) for ORR began in M Building with eleven students. Mr. [] of the A&E Staff is auditing the first running of the course and is helping Dr. [] with the exercises.

F. The OSI Intelligence Research (Techniques) course originally scheduled for November has been postponed until Spring. Because of pressure in OSI, particularly in the GM and AE sections, OSI personnel cannot be spared in November. In addition, space will not be available at that time. Dr. [] plans to spend the time in November and December revising Parts A, B, and D of the Research Techniques text and to complete Parts F and G.

Worked out satisfactorily, along lines reported last week.

Take it from scratch.

This is a 2-man job, incl. weekends, when course is running.
